

Sample Family Nursing Objectives/ Student Outcomes

1. Examine scientific findings from nursing, biopsychosocial fields, genetics, public health, quality improvement, and organizational sciences for the continual improvement of family-focused nursing across diverse settings
2. Demonstrate leadership skills necessary for ethical and critical decision making, effective working relationships, and a systems-perspective to promote high quality and safe family-focused nursing care.
3. Apply quality principles within an organization and articulate the methods, tools, performance measures, and standards related to quality
4. Demonstrate leadership skills necessary for ethical and critical decision making, effective working relationships, and a systems-perspective to promote high quality and safe family-focused nursing care
5. Use communication strategies and patient-care technologies to integrate, coordinate, deliver and enhance family-focused nursing care.
6. Examine the policy development process and advocacy strategies necessary to intervene at the system level to influence family health and family health care.
7. Use communication strategies necessary for interprofessional collaboration and consultation to manage and coordinate family-focused care
8. Integrate broad, organizational, person-centered, and culturally appropriate concepts in the planning, delivery, management, and evaluation of evidence-based clinical prevention and population care and services to individuals, families, and aggregates/identified populations
9. Demonstrate advanced level of understanding of nursing and relevant sciences as well as the ability to integrate this knowledge into practice including both direct and indirect care components that influence healthcare outcomes for individuals, families, populations, or systems.