Communication
5. IFNA Communications	Highlights for the newsletter/website <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reminder to send in any updates on research and progress.
6. Report from IFNA Research Committee	Kim Mooney Doyle & Cindy Danford <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Closed out the call for abstracts. Presently under review and decisions in the next few weeks. Would like to promote the IFNA conference. Although virtual would like to have as many people as possible to attend.

	Working on presentations to accommodate all different time zones. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Last presentation from Karen from University of Massachusetts and Anne from the University of Wisconsin Maddison who jointly presented a brief presentation on research in a pandemic and looking at RIB considerations. Audio of the presentation will be posted on the IFNA website. Information will be coming up on the finances. Other discussions on creative ways to keep people engaged and to bring in more finances are in progress. Preparing keynote speakers and pre-conferences. • One group working on a mechanism to organize all the articles to distribute for review. Have a general topic and the literature review will entail father's engagement and their experience with children with chronic conditions. Working on fine tuning it to go into a global research data collection piece.
